II. PROGRAM UPDATES

A. RTA- Handout from Andy Plummer

Goal of 20th Anniversary of the RTA Community Planning Program to increase transit ridership and improve quality of life. In Will County 12 projects, 3 transit center, station area or improvement studies, 4 TOD studies, 3 developer panels and 1 zoning code update.

B. METRA- Noe Gallardo

Romeoville Metra station has opened and ridership is doing well and better than expected. North Street (Manhattan) and Joliet Street (New Lenox) at grade crossing updates.

C. Pace- Beth Gonzales

Ridership is up. The Plainfield Park and Ride will be open in April 2018. Pace is a good partner to have in regards to development guidelines in order to ensure proper development for bus service.

D. ISTHA

No Report.

E. IDOT- District One

No Report.

F. IDOT Local Roads- Kevin Stallworth

Update on projects within Will County, including design approval, ROW certified and target letting dates.

G. CMAP- Russell Pietrowiak

The CMAQ program is moving forward. If your funds are delayed take steps to make the program active. The STP program is spending a lot of money, we need to be fiscally constrained moving forward. Work with PLs to provide constant status updates.

III. WCGL UPDATE

The STP Project selection committee through CMAP is meeting the 4th Wednesday of every month. They are developing active program management and the project selection methodology for the shared fund. The call will be in January 2019 for FY20.

IV. OTHER BUSINESS

No Report.

V. NEXT MEETING

June 20th, 2018

VI. ADJOURNMENT

Approved as presented by unanimous vote, March 27, 2019
